Dear MISS OPOKU, January 3, 2024

COLLEGE OF BASIC & APPLIED SCIENCES
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES) ADMISSIONS
2023/2024 REGULAR PROGRAMME

PROVISIONAL ADMISSION LETTER

1. I write to offer you admission into the College of Basic & Applied Sciences, University of Ghana to pursue a four-year FULL TIME course of study leading to the award of a BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES) degree.
2. Beginning from Level 200, you may opt for any one of the following programmes leading to the award of a Bachelor of Science Degree in: Actuarial Science, Biomathematics, Computer Science, Mathematics, and Statistics . This would be based on your performance at Level 100.
3. The University of Ghana reserves the right to revoke this offer of admission in the event that any discrepancies are detected in the statements you made in your application.
4. Your Student Identification Number (ID) is 22098316. This is the number that you will use throughout your studies in this University. Your University of Ghana e-mail address, your temporary UG e-mail password, and your Personal Identification Number (PIN) will be on your Confidential Information Card, which is to be downloaded separately from your admission letter. Information on how to activate your UG e-mail will be available on the Confidential Information Card and on the University of Ghana website.
5. The fees for the BACHELOR OF SCIENCE (MATHEMATICAL SCIENCES) programme for the 2023/2024 academic year is GHS 2,983 . Information on payment of fees is attached. Your ID number should be quoted on the pay-in-slip.
6. You are expected to confirm your acceptance of this offer and secure your admission to the University of Ghana by paying a non-refundable commitment fee of 30% of the fees stated within 2 WEEKS from the date of issuance of this letter.
7. Students who require financial assistance should contact the Students' Loan Trust Fund (SLTF). To initiate the process of applying for the Students' Loan, contact the Students Loan Trust Fund on www.sltf.gov.gh or 0302 231886/7 and 0264 043072. You can also visit any of their 14 Zonal offices across the country for assistance.
8. You are required to register promptly before Thursday, February 8, 2024. Guidelines on how to register are available on the University's website (https://www.ug.edu.gh). You will need your student number and PIN to gain access to the University's online registration system. To qualify to register for the 2023/2024 academic year, however, you are to pay a minimum of 50% of the fees stated. The remaining 50% of the fees should be paid at the beginning of the second semester. Please note that accommodation is not guaranteed as available beds will be allocated through a random system. If interested, it is crucial to opt for the random allocation during your academic registration. You are encouraged to explore alternative housing options promptly if on-campus accommodation is not assigned.
9. Students are expected to report from Friday January 12, 2024 to Sunday January 14, 2024. Teaching will begin on Monday January 15, 2024. Matriculation will take place on Saturday, February 10, 2024. You are expected to sign the online matricula to confirm your studentship before the day of matriculation.
10. The University requires that you be declared medically fit by its Director of Health Services. In this regard, you will be medically evaluated at the Students Medical Examinations Centre. Note that you will be expected to pay in full for laboratory and X-rays tests. Use this link https://sts.ug.edu.gh to book an appointment for medical investigations as soon as possible.
11. You will be required to participate in a compulsory programme of orientation from Friday January 19, 2024 to Saturday January 20, 2024. Details of this programme will be made available on the University's website.
12. Should you decide to withdraw from the University on or before Friday, February 9, 2024 the University shall refund your fees to you less 30% of the total fees paid. Beyond this date, NO REFUND shall be made.
13. All correspondence in relation to your admission should be sent to:
